THE BIG READ : FOUR COMMUNITIES READING TOGETHER

Homer Township Library is one of four libraries recently awarded The Big Read, a National Endowment of the Arts (NEA) grant. Homer Township, Orland Park, Tinley Park, and Frankfort residents together are invited to read the classic, "The Maltese Falcon" and participate in a variety of library programs and activities. Homer Township Library kicks off the celebration with an interactive mystery night on Friday, September 28th and concludes with a special showing of the film at the Marcus Theatre on Sunday, Oct. 28th. Visit www.homerlibrary.org/thebigread.asp or call 708 301-7908 for details about the programs and ticket information.

MYSTERY NIGHT

The Homer Township Library will kicking off THE BIG READ on September 28 @ 7:00 pm with a mystery performance evening. Are you a closet Columbo or an arm chair Jessica Fletcher? Then join us as we uncover the "Prime Suspect." Limited seating. Tickets are required

Oh, the Places You'll Go!" Flickr Project

"Oh, the Places You'll Go!" was one of the last books written and illustrated by Dr. Seuss. The colored illustrations and whimsical rhymes delight both children and adults. This inspirational book teaches valuable life lessons, such as overcoming challenges. We ask residents of any age, to check out a copy of this motivating book and bring it to the places YOU go! Share your special journey by sending us a photograph of you holding a copy of "Oh, the Places You'll Go!" Send photographs to homerlibrary@gmail.com. So we ask you, what places will you go?

Photographs will be posted on <http://www.flickr.com/photos/ohtheplacesyoullgo/>. The library reserves the right to use submitted photographs in publicity material. "You're off and away!"
